Park Located at 401 Railway Avenue

It was the consensus of the commission to submit the National Register of Historic Places nomination of the park contained in Charles Mobley's report for the Alaska SeaLife Center Project to the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO).

ADMINISTRATION REPORTS

Martin stated that SHPO anticipated returning the Jesse Lee Home nomination to the City for final review and recommendation in May. He further stated that the State Historic Preservation Commission would review the nomination at its July meeting prior making a recommendation to the National Register.

COMMISSION DISCUSSION

SKIBENESS encouraged the commissioners to develop a working relationship with the City Council. She supported Local Register Nominations going to the City Council for final approval in order to assist in raising awareness.

CITIZEN'S DISCUSSION

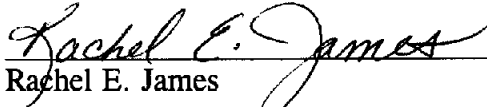

LEE POLESKE recommended that the Historic Preservation Award be a commission only award. He stated that there were several members from the Resurrection Bay Historical Society on the Commission.

COMMISSION & ADMINISTRATION RESPONSE TO CITIZEN'S COMMENTS

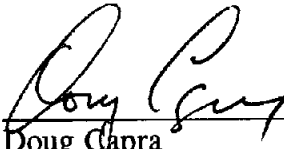

Martin thanked Lee Poleske for attending the meeting and providing comments to the commission.
